THE 1955 LEGEND

Volume XV

(fairytales can come true)

presented by the
SENIOR CLASS
GENEVA
HIGH SCHOOL

MEMORIAM

In memory of Charles Ross, who spent half of his high school career with us before his tragic death in the summer of 1953. This fun-loving classmate was well liked by everyone who knew him. He will never be forgotten by the class of "55."

In memory of R. O. Hunt, who was principal during our grade-school days and sponsor of our class during the first half of our freshman year. He guided us well through the beginning of our high school careers before his death in December 1952.

DEDICATION

We, the Senior Class of 1955, wish to dedicate this edition of "The Legend" to our sponsor, teacher, and friend, Mr. Fred L. Geyer.

For four years he gave us his time, energy, patience, and advice.

To you, Mr. Geyer, we say, "thank you."

Jack and the Beanstalk

Jack in the Beanstalk we admire,
He's just like seniors, climbing higher,
Reaching out for better things,
To grasp whatever life brings,

HISTORY

September 1, 1954 was the beginning of the last year of school for twenty-five eager seniors. With Mr. Geyer as our sponsor, we elected the following officers: President, Ralph Haines; Vice President, Ernie Haviland; Secretary, Marilyn Zuercher; and Treasurer, Lyle Augsburger.

We sponsored several projects this year such as: a greeting card sale, and the 1955 edition of the Legend. Under the direction of Mrs. Van Matre, we presented our last class play, "Finders Creepers."

We want to thank our teachers, parents, and sponsor for making these years possible. After four years of high school, we have learned to always be "Able and Willing."

CLASS FLOWER: Yellow Rose

CLASS MOTTO: Able and Willing.

WILLS

I, Bert Affolder, will my ability to sleep in every class to Johnnie Lou Toland and my government book to Glen Amstutz, providing he can get more out of it than I did.

I, Lyle Augsburger, being of sound mind and body, will my ability to keep out of trouble to Mike Weaver.

I, Marilyn Baker, being of shapely body, will my position as Drum Marojette to Hope Myers and my height to my sister, Becky.

I, Don Bausser, being of sound mind and body, will my ability to get A's in science to Bruce Booher.

I, Jay Campbell, being of peculiar mind and body (?), will my ability to stay out of trouble in Mr. Smith's study hall to Coleen Ellenberger and my government book to Larry Heniser, providing he can get as much out of it as I did. (Nothing)

I, Bob Doherty, being of sound mind and broken body, will my ability to get to school on time to Charles Hirshey, and my U. S. history book to Larry Parr, for he never paid me for it anyway.

I, Al Farlow, being strong in body and weak in mind, will my ability to chew gum in Geyer's study hall and get away with it, to Larry Parr, and my seat in Smith's study hall to Harold Call.

I, Larry Fenstermaker, will my ability to argue with a good Republican (Ralph Haines) to Becky Baker and my seat in Mr. Smith's quiet study hall to Larry Heniser.

I, Garnet Fravel, will my majorette boots to Larry Hunt, providing he can step into them as easily as I can, and my diamond to Jennifer Bagley if, after getting it, she keeps it in mind at all times, and my X school days to Tom Bulger.

I, Ralph Haines, will my basketball suit to Steve Bauman, providing he can get into it and does as much for the team as I tried to do.

I, Ernie Haviland, being of weak body and strong mind, will my good behavior in Mrs. Van Matre's classes to Danny Craig; he needs it.

I, Suzanne Jackson (?) (?), will my ability to wear very short hair to Anna Margaret Beeler if she has enough nerve to cut her's that short!

I, Jim Long, will my position on the basketball team to Alan Baumgartner and my ability to pitch in baseball to Larry Hunt.

I, Robert Mathys, will my garbage can stomach to Buzz Neal providing he can eat as much as I can.

I, Roberta Mathys, in question of sound mind and body, do hereby will the natural color of my hair to Jennifer Bagley plus my ability to get out of the assembly at all times, providing she uses it with some common sense.

I, Janean Moser, will my position as majorette to anyone who will get as big a kick from it as I did, and my dark hair to Shirley Nevil providing she takes care of it as much as she does her own.

I, DeWayne Nevil, will my height to Donnie Spade, providing he uses it to some great extent and my ability to get out of study hall to anyone who wants to.

I, Rosanna Norr, will my first chair, flute position, to Becky Neuenschwander, providing she works Larry Laux as hard as I worked her.

I, Christene Smitley, will my future last name (Hofstetter) to Shirley Morgan, and if she gets it, I hope she will like it as much as I will.

I, Linnett Sprunger, will my position as librarian to anyone who wants a boy friend as Miss Willis will get you one, and my ability to sing to Lucy, providing she can get as scared as I did.

I, Flora Stanley, will my position on the cafeteria line to Ruth Teeter, providing she doesn't spill as much food as I did.

I, Paul Teeter, will my waste paper to Harry Kamman.

I, Jerry Tester, being of doubtful mind and body, will my orderly conduct in Mr. Geyer's study hall to Carol and my basketball suit to my brother.

I, Roger Von Gunten, being of sound mind and body, will my ability to get my agriculture lessons to Roger Plummer, providing he does as good a job as I have.

I, Marilyn Zuercher, will my shorthand book to Sue Affolder and my glasses to Jenifer Bagley, providing she wears them all the time like I do.

FINDERS CREEPERS

When Hercules Nelson's aunt and uncle invited Hercules and Wilbur Maxwell, his bosom pal, for the weekend, they didn't know what they were asking for—for that matter neither did Hercules or Wilbur. Herc knew Uncle Bob had a new job; but he didn't know, until too late, that he was a mortician. Needless to say, the boys were terrified and were ready to go home pronto; especially when they found out that there was another house guest—a Mr. Quigley who had passed on. At that point things started happening that would have put braver men than Herc and Wilbur to flight. For one thing, "the guest" walked around, read the paper, and crawled in bed with Herc. Mr. Quigley wasn't dead!! Someone had tried to do away with him, so he had decided upon this unusual course of action. It probably would have worked had not Herc and Wilbur decided to solve the case. When they did, everything became thoroughly confused and Uncle Bob was carried off to the klink. Eventually the boys came face to face with the culprit—innocent looking Dr. Brown. As Dr. Brown was ready to eliminate them the lights went out and Daphne, the maid, knocked the good doctor out cold when he tried to escape. The story ended happily with Daphne finally accepting Claude's proposal of marriage and Granny eloping with Mr. Quigley.

PROPHECY

Oceanside,
California
June 18, 1965

Dear Roger,

I decided to drop you a line the other day when I found out you were living in Wisconsin and had a five hundred acre farm. I thought perhaps you would like a little news about some of our mutual friends.

I was in town one day this week and who do you think I ran into—Christene (Smitley) Holstetter. She and her husband had been on a world tour recently and had seen many of our class of "55."

Ernie Haviland is now head sports writer for the St. Louis Tribune.

Garnet Fravel gave up her movie career to marry Tom Bulger and now has two red-headed children.

Bob Mathys is heavy weight champion of the world. He has won most of his fights by the batting of his eye lashes.

Rosanna Norr is married and is the fourth grade teacher at Geneva.

Jay Campbell is first baseman of the Cleveland Indians.

Bob Doherty is now a mechanic at the Cheverolet garage in Portland, and they say he won't work on anything but Chevies.

Lyle Augsburgur is head of the meat packing union in Chicago.

Bert Affolder is now in South Bend and is president of the Allis-Chalmers Association.

Marilyn Baker resides with her husband, Larry Hanni, who is coach at Muncie Central.

Don Bausser is a big detective in Chicago. He has solved many cases that no other detective could solve.

Larry Fenstermaker is now governor of Indiana; and the rumor is, he will be running for president in the next election.

Roberta Mathys is owner and operator of Bertie's Beauty Shop in Geneva.

Marilyn Zurcher is married to Paul Andrews and lives in Decatur. She has three children.

Linnet Sprunger is a nurse at the Ball Memorial Hospital in Muncie, Ind.

Paul Teeter is a television technician for C. B. S. at Indianapolis, Ind.

DeWayne Nevil is with the Shrine Circus. He is better known as the "Thin Man" and travels all over the world with the circus.

Jim Long is pitcher for the Chicago Cubs. He is married and has eight children.

Jerry Tester is captain of the Zollner Pistons and makes his home at Ft. Wayne, Indiana.

Flora Stanley now lives in Texas. She and her husband own a five thousand acre ranch.

As Christene and her husband boarded a Pan American plane at San Francisco, California, they were greeted by the stewardess, Janean Moser, who makes her home in San Francisco.

When they arrived in France they were surprised to see Suzie Jackson. She is now a very famous artist and lives in Paris.

They visited a USO Club while in Germany and found a famous comedian was performing. It was none other than our own Al Farlow.

Well, Roger, as for me—I am a Four Star General in the Marines.

FRESHMAN TEAM

After a slow start, the freshman team has come back to win many of their games. The boys showed lots of promise and should be tough in the years to come.

NAGEL'S QUALITY FLOWERS & JEFFERSON GARAGE, BERNE, IND.

INTRAMURAL TEAMS

Twice a week, during noon hours, Intramural games were played. These games have created much interest among the students. Again this year there were four teams and their captains were: Heniser, Von Gunten, Patty, and Fenstermaker. Von Gunten won the league and Patty the tournament.

JUNIOR HIGH BASKETBALL TEAM

This year's junior high team has had a very successful year. The boys came through with a lot of hustle and fire, which played a big part in the winning of their games. The eighth graders played fine ball, and the seventh graders were tough too—so watch them next year. Their record—11 wins; 9 losses.

Mr. Schutz is completing his fourth year as coach here at Geneva. During these years, we have won several championships. Mr. Schutz's fine spirit and his desire for us to win, has brought many happy moments to our school. So we say, "Thanks a lot, Coach, and keep them working."

Mark Hylton, Nolan Koons, and Jack Pace; the student managers; did an excellent job this year in assisting the players and coach. When things would get a little tough, they would always be around with encouraging words. All our thanks, fellows!!

NICE WORK, FELLOW!

The county record in basketball was broken again this year. Jerry Tester has scored a tremendous 1115 points during his four years at Geneva—182, freshman; 330, sophomore; 322, junior; 581, senior. He set a new one year record with this year's 581 points (an average of 25.2 per game) and ended the season in a blaze of glory with 87 points in the sectional. Jerry has also earned 4 letters in baseball and 4 in track; which, plus his 4 in basketball, total 12, proving he is not just a one sport man. From all of us to you, Jerry—Good luck next year in college.

CROSS COUNTRY TEAM

During the second year of cross country, the boys came a long way. Their record was much better than last years and all of the guys will be back next year—so watch out you other cross country teams.

GIRLS' PHYSICAL EDUCATION CLASS

The Girl's Physical Education class, consisting of thirty-six members, met two days each week the first semester, and three days each week the second semester. Mrs. Rhoades is the instructor. The activities engaged in during the year were softball, tennis, kickball, basketball, miscellaneous games, tumbling, soccer and volley ball.

CONCERT BAND

The Concert Cardinals, 50 members strong, and outfitted in their splendid new uniforms, spent a very busy year making music for many different occasions. Besides the regular season of three concerts, which this year featured several guest soloists, the Concert Band played at the Fall Festival, the P. T. A. Festival, the County Music Festival, and the District Music Contest.

GENEVA HIGH BAND TO MAKE WORLD TOUR

The Geneva Marching Cardinals, the majorettes and their director, Peter A. Figert, are making hurried last minute preparations to begin an extended tour of the world. During the next three months, the band has planned to visit Ireland, Scotland, France, the Holy Land, Germany, Russia, and China and possibly several others. Beginning at the school house Friday nite, November 5, the local "good will ambassadors" will travel by bus, train, steam ship and airplane to all corners of the globe. The band will be accompanied on this trip by Mr. William J. Lee, principle of the Geneva School, many of the other teachers and all the fans at the home basketball games this season. Yes, the Cardinals March Again!

NOTE — The Herald will not

MARCHING CARDINALS

The Marching Cardinals were busy as ever this year. In addition to the world tour at home basketball games, the band marched in the Geneva Festival Parade, the Bluffton Street Fair, the Berne Harvest Jubilee, traveled to Lafayette for the first Purdue Band Day, and made our annual trip to Indianapolis to participate in the State Fair celebration.

MAJORETTES

That extra dash of color was added to the Marching Band performances this year by the Senior Twirlers, Garnet Fravel, Hope Myers, Suzanne Jackson, and Janean Moser, and the Drum Major, Marilyn Baker.

PEP BAND

Go Team, Gooo — — ! Adding spice and spirit to the pep sessions and away basketball games, the pep band—all seven—collected new honors as the loudest little band in the district.

JUNIOR BAND

Making band music starts early in the school life of future bandmen. The Junior Band, composed mostly of members of the fifth, sixth, seventh, and eighth grades, gave several good performances this year, promising better things in the future for the Geneva Band Boosters.

JUNIOR MAJORETTES

Basketball fans this winter were entertained many times by this quintet of lovely young ladies, doing novelty twirling routines. The Junior Twirlers include: Becky Baker, Janice Van Emon, Patsy Mathys, Marcella Dailey, and Margaret Cook.

CONCERT CHOIR

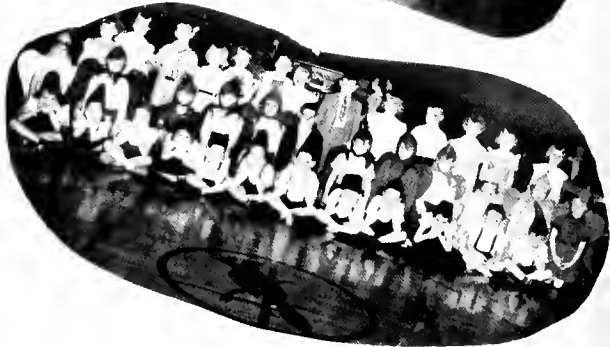

Once again this year, Geneva has a choir. With nearly 70 singing members, the choir has performed many different types of songs, ranging from a tricky arrangement of "Chop-Sticks" to "The Lord's Prayer." The choir gave its first performance for the P. T. A. in November and then participated in the County Music Festival and the Band Concert in December. The all-school program and Baccalaureate in the spring rounded out the year's work.

GERMAN BAND

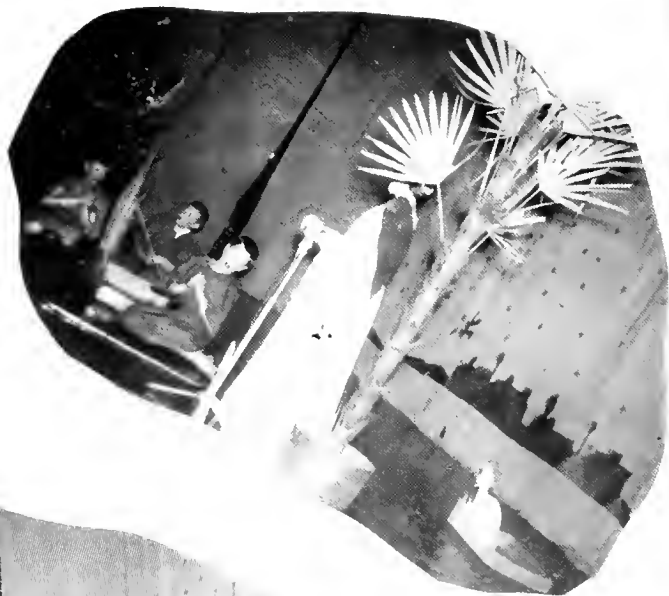

Good old German Band Music, and even older jokes, were the standard bill of fare for Geneva's "Hungry Five." Started as a gag nearly two years ago, the "Five" have been called on several times to perform for local civic groups as well as school performances.

F. F. A.

The local F. F. A. elected officers as follows: President, Larry Fenstermaker; V. President, Roger Von Gunten; Secretary, Fred Burke; Treasurer, Steve Bauman; Reporter, Larry Heniser; and Sentinel, DeWayne Nevil. This fall our chapter harvested the soy beans from the athletic field. We hope, as one project this winter, to make and sell more of the cement hog troughs. We are also going to send two delegates to the state F. F. A. Convention.

HISTORY

On September 14, the juniors of 1954-55 met to elect officers for the coming school year. The following were elected: Ruth Teeter, President; Mark Hylton, Vice President; Hugh Smith, Secretary; and Dan Stahly, Treasurer.

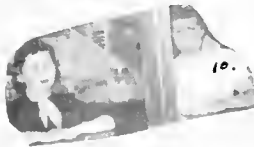

Our class has charge of the candy stand this year and sells concessions at all home ball games. We had a very successful magazine sale this fall and a fine school paper this winter.

Our first class party was held on September 24. The group went on a hayride to Larry Heniser's woods, ate supper, and then rode through New Corydon and Jay City.

Getting her first date with Ralph wasn't easy, and Betty's afraid it'll be her last; Father has called off their plans to go dancing. After reading a newspaper story about teen-age elopement, he's decided young people will bear watching; and since the best place to watch them is at home, that's where Betty and Ralph must spend the evening. Father will get acquainted with the young man; and if he passes inspection, they can go dancing—next time. "There won't be any next time," wails Betty. She does her utmost to convince him; Ralph is a wonderful boy—the most important thing in her life—and she'll die if she can't go dancing with him. Father is not merely unmoved, he's more suspicious than ever. Besides, he asks the family, what's so awful about spending an evening at home? Nothing—but it seems that Bud, Kathy and even Mother have made plans to go out. Aggravated, Father puts his foot down—they'll all stay home. Invite their friends over, yes—but no one is to leave the house! The results are not quite what he expects; in fact, the town's social life is suddenly centered on the Anderson household, with a Garden Club meeting in the living room, basketball in the basement, and hide-and-seek all over the place. The excitement and humorous complications grow, and then in the final scene Father discovers that while he may know best, the young people know a little too.

1. "Were any of them cute?"
2. "Say, you look terrible!"
3. "I have just a few suggestions."
4. "Darling, your dirty pajamas"

5. "If it takes 3 men working 8-hour shifts 4 days to dig a ditch 53 feet by 6 feet by 3 feet . . . Got that?"
6. "Yes, but I didn't have time to kiss her last night."
7. "Come, come — these youngsters are not bad."

8. "Look—I found black walnut!"
9. "Rinsamat Repair, the washing machine man."
